Xhemajl (Bislim) Krasniqi

(born 6/05/1940, Albanian from Klinë/Klina, bricklayer, three children)

Xhemajl was originally from Çabiq/Čabić. Several years before the war, he had relocated to Klinë/Klina with his wife and children. On 23 April 1998, he left Çabiq/Čabić and headed for the village of Ujmirë/Dobra Voda to catch a train for Klinë/Klina. His family did not see him again. Xhemajl's body was discovered on 27 April 1998 near the Skënderaj/Srbica - Glogovac/Glogoc road, in the village of Gllobar/Globar [Glogovac/Glogoc municipality]. It was partly covered with earth. A piece of paper with the word "unidentified" written on it in Albanian was found on the body. The Krasniqis recovered Xhemajl's body on 30 April 1998 from the Prishtinë/Priština hospital morgue. He was buried later that day in the cemetery in Shupkofc/Šupkovac [Mitrovicë/Kosovska Mitrovica municipality].
