

Zvonimir (Lazar) Bojanić

(born 14/04/1945, Serb from Slatinë e Madhe/Velika Slatina, Fushë Kosovë/Kosovo Polje municipality)

Zvonimir was Vice-President of the Fushë Kosovë/Kosovo Polje Municipal Assembly. On 17 December 1998 at 21:40h, five plain-clothed men identifying themselves as members of the KLA came to Zvonimir's house in Slatinë/Velika Slatina. One of the men was masked. Zvonimir was in the company of his brother Živojin and godmother Svetlana at the time. When Zvonimir refused to come with them to Laushë/Lauša [Skënderaj/Srbica municipality], where the KLA had its headquarters, they handcuffed him, tied up his brother Živojin with chains and locked Svetlana up in the room. After looting money and valuables from the house, they took Zvonimir outside. His body was found the next morning at around 06:00h on the main road connecting Prishtinë/Priština and Pejë/Peć, near the place called Kroi i Mbretit/Careva Česma in Korroticë e Epërme/Gornja Koretica [Glllogoc/Glogovac municipality]. The body left behind in the middle of the road and run over by an unidentified vehicle. Signs of torture were visible on the body, as well as gunshot wounds in the forearm and chest.
