

behind in a village after their relatives and other inhabitants had left, there has seldom been any evidence to show how they died.

Researchers and Analysts: Acknowledgements

The energy and dedication of Sandra Orlović and Bekim Blakaj in bringing The Kosovo Memory Book, 1998 to fruition have been unparalleled. Bekim led a large team of researchers and Sandra put together the work of researchers and analysts. Both of them know by heart the names of all the people who died or were forcibly disappeared in Kosovo. This work could not have been carried out without our researchers and analysts, each of whom made his or her own individual expert and human contribution.

The first statements relating to the murders, abductions and disappearances in 1998 bear the signatures of Nora Ahmetaj, Ariana Zherka, Vjollca Musliu, Marijana Andelković and Snežana Orlović. Gordana Igrić headed the research in 1998; Bogdan Ivanišević was also there, as precise in his taking of statements as in his analytic reports. The HLC returned to the events of 1998 some years later, with the clear idea of producing The Kosovo Memory Book. This was followed by several years of research into cases of war crimes and murders, abductions and forced disappearances after the war, up until 2000. Beside Kosovare Kelmendi, tribute must be paid to the researchers of the HLC and the HLC Kosovo: Agron Llloluni, Aleksandar Glišić, Anita Varajić, Arjeta Spahiu, Bashkim Hisari, Besnik Krasniqi, Bojan Tepavčević, Dragana Piletić, Gojko Pantović, Gordana Damjanović, Iskender Muzbeg, Laza Lazarević, Ljiljana Hellman, Milan Gačanović, Milijana Novaković, Mirjana Lazić, Olivera Budimir, Predrag Miletić, Sabina Hasanaj, Sandra Horina, Shpresim Arifi, Shqipe Gashi, Stana Tadić, Tamara Okmažić, and to our associates: Ardijana Ukella, Artër Buçaj, Dardan Shala, Debatik Doli, Dorina Ballata, Ibish Hoti, Kujtim Gacaferi, Labi not Krasniqi, Mustafa Radoniqi, Pal Bala, Rushit Velu, Sherif Aliaj, Shkelzen Gashi, Shpresa Veliqi, Teki Bokshi, Xhevdet Rushiti, Violeta Kelmendi and Vjollca Bejtullahu.

Gratitude to the Victims' Families and to the Associations of Victims' Families

In Kosovo, most of our help came from the families of the victims, not simply by their giving statements on the members of their families who had lost their lives or been forcibly disappeared, but by their supplying us with their knowledge of, and contacts with, other families and potential witnesses. We also received assistance from the municipalities of Deçan/Dečani, Ferizaj/Uroševac, Fushë Kosovë/Kosovo Polje, Gjilan/Gnjilane, Glogoc/Glogovac, Istog/Istok, Kaçanik/Kaçanik, Klinë/Klina, Lipjan/Lipljan, Malishevë/Mališevo, Mitrovicë/Kosovska Mitrovica, Prishtinë/Priština, Suharekë/Suva Reka, Rahovec/Orahovac, Obiliq/Obilić, Pejë/Peć, Podujevë/Podujevo, Prizren, Prokuplje, Shtime/Štimlje, Skënderaj/Srbica, Vushtrri/Vučitrn, the City of Niš and the City of Belgrade, whose representatives took part in public presentations of The Kosovo Memory Book, 1998, which were organized in order to verify the data we had gathered.
